Tennessee State Library & Archives

Education Outreach

The Tennessee State Library & Archives is a great resource for teachers seeking primary sources for use in classroom instruction. Newspapers, historic photographs, letters, diaries, maps, political cartoons, Governors' papers, and more that tell the story of Tennesseans and our role in American history are available to the public at the Library & Archives.

Learn more at:
sos.tn.gov/tsla/education

Contact us:
education.tsla@tn.gov
615-253-3469

Visit our website

For access to digital primary sources and tools for educators, to sign up for our newsletter, to learn about upcoming workshops, and more!

sos.tn.gov/tsla/education

Attend a workshop

The Library & Archives is happy to provide professional development for teachers in communities across the state of Tennessee. To schedule an in-service presentation or workshop, contact us at education.tsla@tn.gov.

Visit in person

Tuesdays-Saturdays, 8:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m., excluding state and federal holidays, at 403 7th Avenue North, Nashville, TN 37243.

Tennessee State Library and Archives
Secretary of State Tre Hargett