MICROFILMED

INTRODUCTION

The Tennessee Historical Society World War II Collection (1941-1945) is composed largely of clippings about Tennesseans who served during World War II in the United States Navy. Donor unknown.

The materials in this collection measure 2.10 feet. There are no restrictions on the materials. Single photocopies of unpublished writings in the Tennessee Historical Society World War Two Collection may be made for purposes of scholarly research.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

The Tennessee Historical Society World War II Collection, containing approximately 2,000 items, consists of clippings, lists, photographs, press releases and several miscellaneous items.

The bulk of the collection consists of clippings which cover a wide range of topics: the appeal for binoculars; "E" Awards; Jean Faircloth MacArthur; Millington Naval Air Station (Memphis, Tennessee); military families; naval personnel - both men and women; recruiting for Waves; Merchant Marine lists (casualties, deaths, and prisoners-of-war); and radar.

There are twenty four folders of naval personnel (men) arranged from A-Z and twenty four folders containing clipping about Waves. There are also miscellaneous clippings on Navy recruiting of Waves.

A researcher looking for Tennessee's participation in the Navy during World War II would find the naval personnel clippings helpful.
