SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

Record Group 189 contains County Architectural Surveys compiled by the Tennessee Historical Commission spanning the years 1976-1990. The surveys are mainly of buildings but also graveyards, bridges and other sites of historical importance developed before 1945. The surveys are part of the Preservation Act of 1966 which is an effort to preserve and protect historical sites in America by developing historic districts and generating public awareness to the build environment.

The County Architectural Surveys is an ongoing program and eventually will consist of all 95 counties in the State. The container list is arranged by county which is assigned a microfilm roll number. The first number is the county number and the second is the roll number within the county. The actual survey is also assigned a field number.
